Goodfellow Names Martyn Lewis Group Business Development Manager

Huntingdon ... November 8, 2010 ... Goodfellow, a leading global supplier of metals and materials for research and specialized manufacturing, is pleased to announce the appointment of Martyn Lewis as Group Business Development Manager. Martyn assumes various international sales and marketing responsibilities with the worldwide Goodfellow Group of Companies.

Martyn received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Modern Languages from the University of Sheffield and speaks French, German and Russian in addition to English. He has spent his professional career working exclusively with international companies that deal with raw materials, including Meldform Metals, a supplier of rare earth metals and oxides, and Contamac, which specializes in biocompatible polymers.

“The international sales positions I’ve held have given me valuable insight into the needs and business realities of customers throughout the world,” says Martyn. “I look forward with great enthusiasm to playing my part in the worldwide growth of Goodfellow over the coming years.”

States Stephen Aldersley, Managing Director of Goodfellow, “Martyn will play a critical role in the continuing global expansion of the Group. His knowledge of the materials market combined with his international business experience make him a valuable resource for our companies and our customers around the world.”

Martyn can be reached at martyn.lewis@goodfellow.com.

For more than 40 years, the Goodfellow name has been synonymous with small quantities of high-quality metals, polymers, ceramics and other materials that meet the research, development, and specialized production requirements of science and industry worldwide. The Goodfellow Group of Companies includes Goodfellow Cambridge Ltd. (UK), The Technical Glass Company (UK), Goodfellow Corporation (US), Goodfellow SARL (France), Goodfellow GmbH (Germany), and the Shanghai Representative Office of Goodfellow Cambridge Ltd.
